Program

The Retail Learning Institute (RLI) and the *University of the Cumberland*s have formed a partnership to facilitate you earning a college degree. Your RLI online training courses will earn you up to 15 credit hours towards an online Associate of Science Degree in Business-Retailing from the University of the Cumberland. If your store is a member of the RLI or offers you training through IGA, NGA, CFG or MIDA, you can earn 15 hours of college credit free of cost.

1. The Associate degree credits can be easily transferred to a Bachelor degree.
2. If your store does not offer the training program you can join RLI for $900, saving over $2,000 on credit costs.
